Most frequent questions & answers

I. WHO CAN APPLY

1. Can I apply if I have not finished my university studies?

You can only apply if you hold a Master's Degree or an equivalent of a University Degree that allows you to start a PhD in Spain by October 2025.

2. Can international students apply (those outside of EU/EEA)?

There are no nationality restrictions. Students of all nationalities can apply for the CRG PhD Programme if the eligibility criteria are fulfilled.

3. Should I contact the supervisor(s) to discuss my application?

It is not necessary to contact the supervisor to discuss your application. In the application form, you will be asked to indicate your preferred research groups (max. 2 groups) and you will have a chance to talk to them during the recruitment process if you are pre-selected.

II. SUBMISSION

4. How can I submit my application?

Applications for the International CRG PhD Fellowship Programme are accepted exclusively online through the online application system, which is available on the CRG website.

You will be required to submit the name of 2 referees together with the application form. You will only be able to submit the application once all mandatory fields, including uploaded reference letters by referees, have been uploaded. Therefore, it is your responsibility to make sure that the referees will complete the reference letters before the call deadline.

Once the application is submitted, you will receive an automatic email, an acknowledgement of receipt with a reference number which should be included in any further correspondence.

5. Do I need to register to submit an application?

Yes. To submit a new application please, go to the online application system, click on "Start new application", complete and save the mandatory personal details. If the registration was successful, you will receive an automatic email confirming your registration and providing the login details. You will be able to complete the rest of the application before logging out or alternatively, you can log out and continue working on the application later and until the call deadline.

6. May I provide the reference letters on behalf of my referees?

No. Applicants need to provide contact details of two referees. Once clicked, the button "Send Request", the referees will receive an automatic email to complete the recommendation letter online. The application will only be eligible if the recommendation letters were provided before the application deadline. Therefore, the applicant needs to make sure to send the request through the online application portal as soon as possible, before finalizing the application. Applicants will be able to check whether and when the recommendation letters were submitted but will not be able to read the recommendation letter itself.

7. Who should I name as referees?

Your referees should be 2 scientists who are familiar with your academic work and/or research experience and who can judge your potential as a PhD student.

Please select your referees carefully: one should be your current or most recent employer/supervisor, at least one must be able to comment on your university academic record, and at least one should be able to comment on your previous research experience. None of them should be affiliated with the institute you apply to (CRG).

8. I made a mistake in my application, and I have submitted it - can I change it?

No, you cannot make changes to submitted applications, and we will not do so on your behalf. Therefore, please double-check your application before submission.
