

LEADERSHIP & MANAGEMENT SKILLS COURSE FOR ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

APPLY NOW!

Administrative staff in research environments play a pivotal role in ensuring the smooth operation of scientific endeavors.

Recognizing the unique demands on research administrators, we have designed a course to offer practical, hands-on training that addresses their real-world challenges.

By investing in their development, we aim to foster a more efficient, effective, and inclusive research environment. This will enable administrative professionals to better support their teams and drive organizational success.

Target audience: Administrative Staff at CRG

Dates: 10-12 July 2024

Instructors: Two experienced hfp consultants

Location: Rita Levi-Montalcini (PRBB patio)
